Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration will be held on First Friday, October 6th following the 8:30AM Mass. Benediction will close the prayer at 12:50PM.

In the booklet titled The Blessed Sacrament-God With Us, we read, "To be born for us, to live a toilsome life and to suffer and to sacrifice Himself for us by a most painful death did not exhaust the love of the Incarnate Son of God. He wished to remain among us after his ascension into Heaven and by a perpetual miracle to continue in a mystical manner the mysteries of His earthly life and of His sacred Passion and death. This he accomplished by instituting the Most Blessed Sacrament. His infinite wisdom knew of nothing better and His infinite love could bestow nothing more holy than the adorable Sacrament of the Altar. Let us admire and adore the amazing abasement of the Lord of the universe, the Son of the Most High, in so humbling Himself for our salvation as to conceal Himself under the lowly species of bread."

You are personally invited to join the volunteers in spending time before the Blessed Sacrament praying for your own intentions. Pope Francis prays, "Sovereign Lord, during the month of October, we lift up to you all workers and the unemployed. May all workers receive respect and protection of their rights. May the unemployed receive the opportunity to contribute to the common good."

Blest Art

Blest Art will be visiting our parish October 7th and 8th. Blest Art sells religious olive wood art made by Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Items will include hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries and many other pieces. We invite you to visit the display and to consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land. In doing so, you will help support many families who depend on this form of art for their living. Cash, checks and all major credit cards are accepted.
