Reflection for the Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

At this time of year, it is good to remember to pray for those who are unable to pray for themselves.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Joseph Raymond Flesia. May God welcome him home and comfort his family in this time of sorrow. May the knowledge of our prayers and support give his family peace.

St. Joseph pray for us.

The Compass Fuels Faith

More than 45,000 fellow Catholics fuel their faith by reading the Diocese's official weekly newspaper, The Compass. They're reading the publication because it helps guide them on their faith journey. Inspirational stories from The Compass bring Christ right into their hearts and minds.

"With help from the Bishop's Appeal, The Compass provides readers with reliable news, information and inspiration," says Sam Lucero, News & Information Manager. "Each week, stories and columns help reveal our Catholic faith. And they deliver more than just news. They challenge readers to explore and absorb Christian values in the world today."

The Compass is made possible by the Bishop's Appeal; please prayerfully consider a gift today. Visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext 8123.

Disciples on the Way

Thoughts for Reflection for this Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

All three readings this weekend discuss the notion of holiness; how it flows from God, is characterized by his mercy and kindness and is learned when we imitate God.

- What do you feel are some characteristics of holiness?
- How have you embraced being a holy temple of God as St. Paul suggests?
- How can you be “perfect” as our heavenly Father is “perfect” in character, in holiness, in maturity, in love?

What words or phrases stay in your mind and heart today that perhaps calls you to action in the coming week.
