It is the time of year when our parish office is renewing our bulletin sponsorships. The advertised sponsors located on the backside of our weekly bulletin help support its weekly publication. We have found this to be the most effective way to communicate with you and our visitors. If you or your family would like to help support the publication of our bulletin, please contact our parish office. The cost for a 6-month single block that would include your name or family name is $115.00 – a 12-month single block is $200.00.

There is Power in Prayer!!

It is never too late to join our Prayer Warrior email group. Call Barb Wagner in the parish office with your email address, if you would like to be a part of this group or if you have prayer requests of any kind.

In Honor of...In Memory of... or in Thanksgiving for ... Flowers by the Holy Family Statues!

A very generous parishioner provided flowers to be placed by the Holy Family Statues in memory of a loved one for many years. People have commented on what a beautiful addition it was and suggested continuing the tradition.

If you are interested in offering a donation in honor or in memory of someone or in thanksgiving for something, please stop by the parish office. Carnations will be placed by the Holy Family Statues beginning in June.

We limit this to 2 weeks/yearly per family to be sure that everyone has the opportunity.

Faith Weavers Bible Study

Faith Formation Center

Tuesdays, 10:00 am

Beginning Tuesday, June 15

Why join a Bible Study?

- It's an awesome way to prepare for the weekend Mass.
- It's a great way to meet others in our faith community and share our faith.
- It's an opportunity to explore how God's Word speaks to us and how we can weave these words of wisdom into our everyday lives.
- Just because...it's a great way to spend Tuesday morning!

Come see what we are all about! Questions call Penny 743-2062.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

Pentecost began with our Lenten journey with ashes – a reminder of our humanness, mortality, and limitations. Hopefully we moved from what weighed us down so as we move from the cross into Resurrection, thereby being more spacious and open to possibility and surprise.

Pentecost demands we listen with a vigilant heart, and heightened senses; that we are willing to open ourselves to be transformed. It is about a conversion – making a commitment to always be surprised by God.

Pentecost. A period of unmitigated joy, a total immersion in the implications of what it means to be a Christian and live the Christian life. It reminds us that what should sustain us is fundamentally beautiful, should inflame the heart and enrich the soul. This is the beauty of the Spirit.

Pentecost

The Call To Holy Surprise

Gifts Of The Spirit

Wisdom

- Enables us to see things with God's eyes and helps us see our joys and sufferings in light of God's loving plan.

Understanding

- Allows us to grasp, at least in a limited way, the very essence of the truths of the Catholic Faith.

Right Judgement (Counsel)

- Helps us made good choices – choices Jesus would make.

Courage (Fortitude)

- Enables us to face danger and overcome fear with confidence. Enables us to see where our real strength lies – in God.

Knowledge

- Helps us to know Jesus and discern what is important and what is not.

Reverence (Piety)

- Helps us to see our relationship with God and to show our gratitude.

Wonder and Awe in God's Presence (Fear Of The Lord)

- To wonder and be amazed at God's beauty around us.

Symbols of Pentecost

Wind Representing God's first breath of love into all of creation. A "driving wind" surrounded the apostles on the first Pentecost to strengthen them in their faith. The breath of the Holy Spirit – and sometimes a gusting wind – strengthens and challenges God's people on their faith journey.

Fire Representing the Holy Spirit, who filled the apostles with enthusiasm, replacing their fear with the courage to go fourth and share Christ's story. "Tongues of fire . . . came to rest on each one of them."

Red The color of Liturgical vestments on Pentecost, representing the dynamism of the Holy Spirit and the zeal of those who open their hearts to the Spirit.

Water Representing new life and the commitment first made at the time of our Baptism and renewed throughout our faith lives.

Dove Representing the Holy Spirit that descended "like a dove" and hovered over Jesus when he was baptized. Symbol of peace.

Life isn't about knowing with more and more certainty, but moving more and more deeply into the mystery of things.
