'Good things do come to an end'

The Bishop's Charities Game started with Bishop Bona and Vince Lombardi

BY JEFF KUROWSKI | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — Game programs, photos, advertisements, financial statements, the original game contract ... Denis Hogan and Jerry Pigeon reminisced as they looked over these and other archived items from the long history of the Bishop's Charities Game. They served as the last two general chairpersons for the annual preseason game that provided support for Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Green Bay.

"Dad started doing publicity for the game in 1966, according to this," said Hogan, referencing a document he came across about his father, Jim Hogan, who served as coordinator of the Bishop's Charities Game for 48 years, until his death in 2013.

Due to the new three-game preseason schedule, the Packers will alternate between hosting one and two preseason games each year. In conjunction with the new schedule, the team is transitioning the charity component of its preseason games. In seasons with one preseason game, the matchup will be deemed the Green Bay Packers Give Back Game. This year, the Packers will continue to support Bishop's Charities and Midwest Shrine Association, traditional recipients of preseason game support, through the Packers Give Back Game, but the game now also will feature new benefiting charities from Green Bay and Southeastern Wisconsin.

"What a very special and unique opportunity this game was, going back to (Vince) Lombardi and the Packers organization continuing it for 60 years," said Hogan, who became general chair in 2010. "Like many things, good things do come to an end. While it's a little bittersweet, we would have loved to have played the actual 60th game."

FRANKLY FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

St. Paul, who loved Jesus and had clearly understood what salvation was, has taught us that the "children of the promise" (Gal 4: 28) — that is all of us, justified by Jesus Christ — are no longer bound by the Law, but are called to the demanding lifestyle of the freedom of the Gospel. The Law, however, exists. But there exists another way: the same Law, the Ten Commandments, but with another way, because it could no longer be justified by itself once the Lord had come. And therefore, in today's catechesis I would like to explain this. And we ask: what, according to the Letter to the Galatians, is the role of the Law? In the passage we have heard, Paul says that the Law was like a pedagogue. It is a beautiful image, that of the pedagogue we spoke about during the last audience, an image that deserves to be understood in its correct meaning.

A saintly grave lies only a short drive away

BY JEFF KUROWSKI | THE COMPASS

OSHKOSH — If you're looking for a day trip with a prayer element, Fr. Kevin Ripley suggests a drive to Ellis, a small community in Portage County, Wis. Located in the cemetery behind St. Martin Church, which is now closed, is the gravesite of Blessed James Miller.

Fr. Ripley, parochial vicar at St. Raphael the Archangel Parish, Oshkosh, and priest celebrant at St. Mary Parish, Omro, and St. Mary Parish, Winneconne, has made multiple visits to the gravesite. On July 24, he returned with a group.

"I was put in charge of young adult ministry (at the parish)," said Fr. Ripley, who also serves as chaplain at Lourdes Academy in Oshkosh. "We've done some things, and I thought young adults would be interested in the only gravesite in the state where you have to ask for the beatified person's prayers. I decided to put it on the calendar."

De La Salle Christian Brother James Miller was recognized as a martyr by Pope Francis on Nov. 8, 2018. He was beatified on Dec. 7, 2019, at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception in Huehuetenango, Guatemala.

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Our Lady of Sorrows

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 The Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows is Sept. 15, the day after the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.
- 2 Mary's sorrows are traditionally seven in number, even though there are only five sorrowful mysteries of the rosary.
- 3 The first three sorrows come from Jesus' childhood: Simeon's prophecy, the flight to Egypt and the loss in the Temple.
- 4 The remaining sorrows relate to Jesus' death: Mary meeting him on the Way of the Cross, the Crucifixion, the taking down from the Cross and his burial.
- 5 Our Lady of Sorrows is depicted in art with a pierced heart, sometimes by one sword and sometimes by seven.

The Latin Mass and the pope's executive decree

Dear friends and followers of Jesus:

As you hopefully know by now, this weekend will begin the reinstatement of the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. In the last two issues of The Compass (Part I & Part II), I used my column to invite people back to Mass to receive the Eucharist, which is the greatest gift that Jesus left his church.

BISHOP'S CORNER

Bishop David Ricken

Throughout the Diocese of Green Bay, the Mass is celebrated in our parishes, schools, religious houses, oratories and chapels each and every day. We are privileged to be able to receive the gift of the Eucharist. I hope that each of you will take advantage of the opportunity to receive the Eucharist, not only on Sundays, but during the week as well.

Recently, Pope Francis issued a motu proprio (executive decree), titled "Traditionis Custodes," which in Latin means "Guardians of the Tradition." The document provides instruction regarding the celebration of the Tridentine or Latin Mass and stresses the importance of the local bishop's oversight over its celebration.

The Tridentine Mass has always been a part of our diocese and, in recent years, these Masses have been celebrated daily at St. Patrick Oratory in Green Bay and, occasionally, at other parishes and locations. The Tridentine Mass is part of the fabric of our local church and the priests and members of the faithful who worship at this Mass have my support as their spiritual father.

Since the Holy Father's document is very recent and contains some elements which need further clarification, I will take time in the coming weeks to further understand it and to prayerfully plan for its proper implementation. In the meantime, I have provided guidelines to our priests with regard to the celebration of the Tridentine Mass. These guidelines were sent directly to the priests and summarized in the last issue of The Compass (July 30, 2021). During this time, I will continue to pray and discern how best to preserve the unity of the church here in the Diocese of Green Bay, while also allowing for the diversity of worship that meets the needs of the faithful.

In all of this, I am reminded of the four marks of the church, which we recite during the creed: I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic church. Each of these characteristics has great meaning to our faith. The word "catholic" means universal and points to the fact that the church and the salvation it offers is meant for all people in our world.

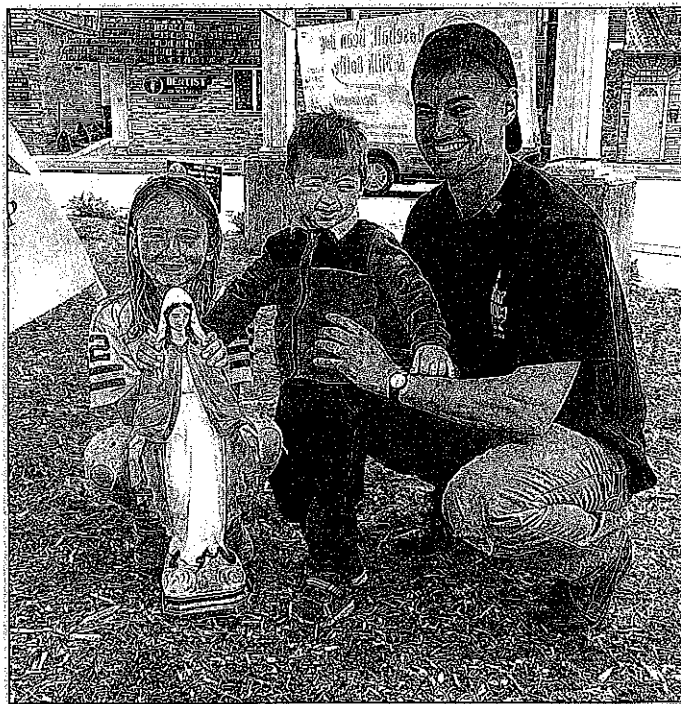

Read the entire column in the Aug. 13 issue.

Parish SNAPSHOT

The Legion of Mary from Good Shepherd Parish in Chilton recently held a rosary rally in honor of Our Lady of Fatima to pray for peace and for courageous officials to protect the culture of life. Approximately 25 people joined the rally, held outside the State Bank of Chilton. Pictured are Adelaide and Thomas Heiberger and their uncle, Ziggy Gross.
