

We say we belong to Christ; therefore, we must do His will, not our will. Then we will be united to Christ, becoming one with Him, and with Christ we will bear good fruit.

The Compass Fuels Faith

Thousands of fellow Catholics fuel their faith by reading the Diocese's official weekly newspaper, The Compass. They are reading the publication because it helps guide them on their faith journey. Inspirational stories from The Compass bring Christ right into their hearts and minds.

“With help from the Bishop's Appeal, The Compass provides readers with reliable news, information and inspiration,” said Sam Lucero, News & Information Manager. “Each week, stories and columns help reveal our Catholic faith. And they deliver more than just news. They challenge readers to explore and absorb Christian values in the world today.”

The Compass is made possible by the Bishop's Appeal; please prayerfully consider a gift today. Visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel Jesus uses images in speaking to his disciples: “Can a blind man act as guide to a blind man?...Why look at the speck in your brother's eye when you miss the plank in your own?...A good tree does not produce decayed fruit...”

It is true that donations come to the Society because a good person produces goodness from the good in their hearts.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul has 3 essential elements that it's members follow. In order of importance is: Spirituality, Friendship and Service to the Poor.

We are all called to help each other get to heaven. We do that through spiritual retreats, spiritual readings, and discussion at all our meetings and through private prayers and readings.

We are called to be friends to each other and help each other. And lastly, we are called to help those in need. Our friends and neighbors. They are never called clients. We are not a Social Service agency. We are their neighbor helping another neighbor or friend in need.

We will begin collecting feminine products for the Month of March. Please continue to fill our basket by the ramp entrance. We are so appreciative of your generosity.

As always you are all remembered in our prayers. God bless you all.

First Friday Adoration

March 4, following 8:30 am Mass at St. Joseph with Benediction at 12:45pm.

40 Things to do in Lent

1. Be cheerful.

It's seriously important. Smile for goodness sake.

2. Make a morning offering.

Preemptive sacrifice. Not bad.

3. Read the Gospels.

Really try to do this one. During Holy Week, read the accounts of Christ's passion.

4. Examine your conscience.

Try it every night. Where did I improve? Where didn't I?

5. Read the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Doesn't have to be cover to cover – just pick a spot and jump around if you want. Learning your Faith will renew it, guaranteed.

6. Daily Mass.

Try going every day, or at least once or twice on weekdays. Or just try getting there on time. Or just re-focus. Attend each Mass like its your first Mass, your last Mass, your only Mass.

7. Say the Rosary.

It is a weapon. Wield it.

8. Mortification.

Okay fine, this is giving things up. But turn it into a positive action: do penance.

9. Compliment someone who annoys you, and mean it.

You might be surprised at the joy this will give you.

10. Spend time in prayer of thanksgiving after Mass.

You aren't in that much of a hurry.

11. Make a silent retreat.

Take your soul on a much needed vacation.

12. Go through your closet.

Give to the poor the things you don't wear. Or even better, something you do wear.

13. Pray 10 minutes each day.

Set a time and stick to it. Prayer is hard for you? Join the club. Difficult prayer is still prayer.

14. Accept small hardships.

Not grudgingly. Joyfully.

15. Make an Act of Contrition.

Don't just save it for Confession. Do it every day.

16. Go to Confession.

Often. There is no joy like the joy you experience walking out of the confessional.

17. Work better.

With more order and more intensity. Put a holy card or a small crucifix in your desk drawer as a reminder to dedicate your work to God and to offer it up for a good intention.

18. Give to the poor.

Give McDonalds gift cards to the homeless. No homeless people around? Find them.

19. Meditate on a crucifix.

Behold the Man.

20. Pray for Pope Francis.

And for the Synod on the Family. And for the United States of America.

21. Spend some time around incense.

I'm not kidding. It will concentrate your attention on God.

22. Visit the sick and elderly.

Your parish has a list of shut-ins. Call the parish office and they will arrange for you to visit a home-bound senior.

23. Pray the Stations of the Cross.

Classic devotion for Fridays in Lent.

24. Forgive someone who has hurt you.

Don't hesitate. This is spiritual gold.

25. Read Death on a Friday Afternoon, by Richard John Neuhaus.

A great book on the seven last words of Christ from the Cross. Short, insightful, easy to read meditations.

26. Befriend your guardian angel.

He or she is in it with you all the way to the end. Be on intimate terms.

27. Pray Psalm 51.

"Fill me with joy and gladness...Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out my iniquities."

28. Exercise.

Walk, run, whatever. It's really good for your spiritual health.

29. Listen to Fr. Robert Barron's Tre Ore meditation on the seven last words of Christ.

Absolutely powerful. A great CD for the car.

30. Get out of bed.

The first time, every time.

31. Read a novel about conversion, like Late Have I Loved Thee, by Ethel Mannin.

It happens to be a favorite of Pope Francis.

32. Pray to St. Joseph.

For your family and for the Church. And if you're a husband and father, for being a better one.

33. Be the servant in your house.

Cheerfully, without seeking recognition.

34. Read Pope Francis in his own words.

Unfiltered. Do you want to know what he actually says? His daily homilies are on the Vatican website.

35. Fast.

It's not just another devotion for certain people. It's an essential practice of Christian life.

36. Eucharistic adoration.

Look at Christ while he looks at you.

37. Pray to Saint John Paul the Great.

For anything.

38. Pray to the Holy Spirit.

For everything. For a good Lent.

39. Make a list.

Write down your Lenten resolutions and put it where you will see it each day, like on the mirror. Be specific. What time are you praying tomorrow?

40. Persevere!

It's not about enthusiasm – that can fade. It's about starting over again and again, with joy.

LENT into EASTER

Your participation is welcome at all the parishes

Lent Is a time of repentance, reconciliation and renewal. It is a time for us to think about our friendship with Christ, our Savior, and our relationships with our spouse, brothers, sisters, parents, children, friends and all of the people whose lives we touch.

May your Lenten journey be one of renewal and joy!

The Traditional Catholic Practice for Lent

Prayer: More intense personal and communal time with our God.

Fasting: In discovering our hunger, we find what we truly need.

1. Catholics who have celebrated their 14th birthday are to abstain from meat on Ash Wed., all Fridays in Lent and Good Friday.
2. In addition to abstaining from meat, Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, until they celebrate their 59th birthday are to fast on Ash Wed. & Good Friday. Those who are bound to this Regulation may only eat one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.
3. These minimal penitential practices should not be lightly excused.

Almsgiving: Giving of our goods and time in works of mercy and charity.

This book discussion is facilitated by Laura Johnsrud and Monica Hilbert. To register: Call 743-2062. Cost of the book is $13.00 payable to St. Joseph Parish.

Scripture Bible Discussion

Every Tuesday, 10:00 am
