Fifth Sunday of Lent

In today's Gospel, Jesus is the model of compassion and kindness. He shows us how to be merciful and nonjudgmental.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace, and mercy into our hearts and into the hearts of those suffering in poverty.

There was a wonderful reminder that came up on Facebook the other day. (Yes, sometimes there is something good there.)

It said:

We all have pasts. We all made choices that maybe weren't the best ones. None of us are completely innocent, but we get a fresh start every day to be a better person than we were yesterday.

As Vincentians we use prayer to help us be nonjudgmental. It is a daily struggle for many of us and is why Spirituality is an integral part of SVDP. We begin every meeting and home visit with prayer and reflection.

Do our Friends in Need make bad decisions? Absolutely. But as the Gospel tells us, we are called to be kind and merciful and to help as we can. Trust me, they know they made bad decisions. We are there to help and not make them feel worse. It's not easy but that is what we are called to do with everyone.

Even family members and friends. We could all do a little better. Let's all be kind and compassionate this week. Not just to the poor but to everyone.

Now in April we will begin collecting diapers and wipes and always children's items.

Next week we will provide a first quarter financial report.

We again thank you for your generosity and as always we will keep you in our prayers.
